Dubrovnik, Croatia
This "Jewel of the Adriatic" on the Dalmatian Coast is rich in Baroque, Gothic and Renaissance architecture. The medieval Mediterranean city is encircled by 14th-century walls and massive guard towers, and the carefully preserved old town features marble-paved squares, cobbled streets and splendid churches, palaces, monasteries and fountains.

Sarande, Albania
Sarande is one of the top points of interest for many tourists along the Albanian Riviera. About 300 days a year are nothing but sunshine and warm Mediterranean weather in this city. It is filled with busy seaside restaurants, cafes, and street stands offering tasty snacks. Travel up to the Castle of Lekures to dine outside and admire a terrific view of the bay.

October 19, 2018

Olympia (Katakolon), Greece
From the small port of Katakolon on the Ionian Coast, it’s a short 30-minute drive to Olympia, where ancient Greeks came to celebrate the games. At the ruins of the sanctuary at Olympia, visitors can see the temples of Zeus and Hera, the floor of the original stadium and the Council House where athletes took the Olympic oath. A museum has a unique collection of Greek sculpture, ancient pieces of armor and bronze figurines found during the excavations.

Naples is one of the world’s greatest cultural centers, filled with extraordinary works of art and architecture in the classical Greek and Roman styles. Several interesting tours are available of the city itself and the fascinating places that lie just outside of Naples.
