February 5, 2020

Ft. Lauderdale, FL

Enjoy motor coach excursions in the Ft. Lauderdale area (provided by TMP).

Embark Holland America's Oosterdam

Fort Lauderdale lies about 30 minutes north of Miami on Florida's lower Atlantic Coast. Fort Lauderdale is sometimes known as the "Venice of America" because of its expansive and intricate canal system. In addition to its museums, beaches and nightlife, Fort Lauderdale is home to a large indoor/outdoor flea market and the site of the world's largest drive-in movie theater. The International Swimming Hall of Fame is located on Fort Lauderdale beach and houses a large aquatic complex as well as a museum, theater and research library.

February 6, 2020

Half Moon Cay, Bahamas

Half Moon Cay is a private island shared by Holland America and Carnival. The island is nine and a half miles around and has nine miles of beach (including an exquisite two-mile crescent-shaped beach), an exterior lagoon and an interior lagoon. The Bahamas National Trust has designated part of Half Moon Cay a wild bird preserve, leaving all but 55 of the island's 2,400 acres untouched and unspoiled and creating a plentiful habitat for a variety of land and seabirds. Spend the day horseback riding or hiking the island's nature trails through the lush broadleaf forest. Enjoy swimming, sunning and relaxing on the beach, or go scuba diving, snorkeling or...

Aruba

Aruba is an island of contrasting terrain, from its white-sand southern shoreline to its rugged and adventurous northern coast. This charming Dutch island is known for its warm and welcoming locals, extensive culinary experiences (there are over 200 restaurants), and duty-free shopping. Aruba offers excellent diving, and diving excursions include sites like the wreck of a World War II German freighter. Cooling trade winds coupled with average temperatures in the 80s make windsurfing and kitesurfing popular sports.

Panama Canal (Full Transit) (Cruising)

The Panama Canal is both an engineering masterpiece and a natural wonder. Connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, the passageway crosses the huge, man-made Gatun Lake and the amazing Gaillard Cut, blasted out of solid mountainside. The great locks raise and lower your ship along a 50-mile waterway -- sometimes with just inches to spare on either side.

February 13, 2020

Puerto Caldera, Costa Rica

The tropical city of Puerto Caldera in the province of Puntarenas is located on Costa Rica's western coast and is an entry point for San José. Excursions to San Jose usually include a visit to the opera house, the crafts village of Moravia and a privately owned ranch. Some tours go past San Jose into the Poas Volcano National Park. Trips to Sarchi, known for its crafts, are also offered.

February 14, 2020

Corinto, Nicaragua

Corinto, despite its large harbor, remains a small, quiet town on the coast, with pristine beaches looking out on the Pacific. Adventurous visitors may also charter a boat to the uninhabited Isla El Cardon, with its untouched beaches and wild interior. Corinto's harbor is a major transshipment point for coffee and other goods, and visitors may be able to buy high quality coffee from close to the source.

February 15, 2020

Puerto Quetzal, Guatemala

Puerto Quetzal is Guatemala's largest Pacific Ocean port. The population centers are located in the more temperate central highlands, rather than along the tropical coasts, which are characterized by black sand beaches.

February 16, 2020

Puerto Chiapas, Mexico

Near the border of Guatemala on Mexico's west coast, Puerto Chiapas offers opportunities for cultural and historic tours, as well as eco-adventures. Upon arrival, don't be surprised to find musicians and dancers in colorful costumes performing on the pier. Those looking for adventure can try white-water rafting, horseback riding, Jeep or ATV rides or hiking through the surrounding jungle.

February 17, 2020

Huatulco, Mexico

This resort area is near the village of Puerto Escondido. It has nine bays with beautiful beaches that are among the cleanest, safest and least crowded on the west coast, and big waves that are great for body surfing. Exceptional boat trips to isolated bays and beaches are available, and there are some facilities for deep-sea fishing.

February 19, 2020

Puerto Vallarta, Mexico

Since this port was discovered as a prime vacation spot in the 1960s, it has become home to luxury resorts and beautiful villas. But, the city's tranquil past is still evident in its charming courtyards, cobblestone streets and markets. The most popular excursions visit Gringo Gulch, the town square and unique cathedral. There's always shopping and horseback riding or relaxing on the beach.

Suggested Attire:

For traveling and all sightseeing excursions—comfortable, casual attire, jacket or sweater.

For dinner and show—nice casual (men—shirt and slacks / women—casual dress or pants). Also common for men to wear tie & jackets and ladies to glitz it up a bit.
